

Introduction

What is NDIS?

Who is eligible?

Individuals aged 16-65 with a permanent and significant disability (NDIS) are eligible for NDIS funding to support their daily living and social and economic participation.

Individuals with a permanent and significant disability are eligible for NDIS funding to support their daily living and social and economic participation.

Individuals with a permanent and significant disability are eligible for NDIS funding to support their daily living and social and economic participation.

Individuals with a permanent and significant disability are eligible for NDIS funding to support their daily living and social and economic participation.

Individuals with a permanent and significant disability are eligible for NDIS funding to support their daily living and social and economic participation.

- Individuals with a permanent and significant disability are eligible for NDIS funding to support their daily living and social and economic participation.
- Individuals with a permanent and significant disability are eligible for NDIS funding to support their daily living and social and economic participation.
- Individuals with a permanent and significant disability are eligible for NDIS funding to support their daily living and social and economic participation.

Conclusion

Individuals with a permanent and significant disability are eligible for NDIS funding to support their daily living and social and economic participation.

Individuals with a permanent and significant disability are eligible for NDIS funding to support their daily living and social and economic participation.

Individuals with a permanent and significant disability are eligible for NDIS funding to support their daily living and social and economic participation.

Individuals with a permanent and significant disability are eligible for NDIS funding to support their daily living and social and economic participation. For more information, visit MHCC or call 1800 000 000.

Individuals with a permanent and significant disability are eligible for NDIS funding to support their daily living and social and economic participation. For more information, visit MHCC or call 1800 000 000.

Conclusion

Individuals with a permanent and significant disability are eligible for NDIS funding to support their daily living and social and economic participation.

Individuals with a permanent and significant disability are eligible for NDIS funding to support their daily living and social and economic participation. For more information, visit 1800 000 000.

